City resident appointed president of crime board

Arthur Santucci, a resident of Deerfield Beach for five years, was recently appointed president of the Broward County Crime Commission.

Broward County Judge George Breshcher administered the oath of office to Santucci at a dinner and reception in Hollywood on March 18.

Former Deerfield Beach Police Chief Al Lamberti was named to the commission advisory board and presented with a plaque at the event.

The Broward County Crime Commission was founded in 1976 by Frank Pinter, a retired law enforcement official. It serves as a civilian monitor of law enforcement and criminal justice.
