Chuck Morton Is Broward's Top Prosecutor

December 1, 2000 | Staff reports

FORT LAUDERDALE — The head of the Broward State Attorney's Office homicide unit, Chuck Morton, was named Prosecutor of the Year at the annual Broward County Crime Commission's awards dinner on Thursday.

Morton, a 23-year veteran of the office, has spent much of the past two years in lengthy trials, winning convictions in some of the county's highest-profile cases, including at least one with a Palm Beach County connection.

Morton's recent cases include the convictions of two men for the murders of three people in the Casey's Nickelodeon case; three men for the killing of a woman abducted by neighbors from her West Palm Beach apartment; and two men who shot a 5-year-old girl in unincorporated Broward County near Davie.
